Sunday Morning Message: The Sermon on the Mount Part III
Sunday Evening Message: The Bowls of God’s Wrath Revelation 16

The Teachings of Jesus

Could you imagine sitting at the feet of Jesus as he preached his first Sermon? Would we feel shocked at the things that came out of Jesus’ mouth? Would we be eager to be obedient to the teachings even though life could prove to be a little different? Would we see the authority that the first-century disciples were able to see? As we look at the Sermon on the Mount recorded in Matthew 5-7, we will consider these questions.

We never like it when a law or rule gets more complicated! When Jesus teaches in the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus seems to take things to a higher level. In Matthew 5: 17, Jesus says, “Do not think that I came to destroy the Law or the Prophets. I did not come to destroy but to fulfill.” Being a Jew, a descendent of Abraham through Isaac, Jesus Christ lived and died under the Law of Moses. He was the only person ever to keep the Law perfectly (Heb. 4:15; 5:8.9). It is the corruption of the Law by various Jewish rabbis and scholars that He was condemning, and not the Law itself. Mere Law-keeping did not justify the children of Israel; they were to honor the Law by submitting to it with obedient hearts (Rom. 2:13-16, 25-59; 3:20). In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus was making a way of life for the Christian.

Anything the comes out of the mouth of the son of God can surely help us with our Christian walk and help us get to heaven. The Sermon on the Mount should excite us as we read it! We should be eager to find out every word that Jesus would have us to know. We should see even more authority than the people of the first century because we understand that Jesus is the son of God, and he died for our sins. Matthew 7:28-29, Jesus said, “When Jesus had finished these words, the crowds were amazed at His teaching; for He was teaching them as one having

- † Paul Lemon will have his appointment in Morgan-town Sept 17th for his hearing. Paul is going to therapy two times a week, and his walking is get-ting better. It was great to see them here Sunday!
- † Please pray for Stacey Robinson. He has a bro-ken collarbone, broken wrist, and bruised lung and ribs.
- † Cristeena Robinson, is healing from a sprained ankle.
- † Ronda’s co-worker, Carrie Smith, has breast can-cer.
- † Kathy Deuley is a friend of the Robinsons and has stage three cancer, which is inoperable. She will have radiation then chemo if necessary. She has recently been in the hospital.
- † Charlotte Eckhart is still struggling with health is-sues. She has low sodium, still has an UTI and is very weak. He daughter is coming in to stay with her.
- † Paul Mullins, Chris Mullins’ father has Stage 3 kid-ney failure.
