Five Wise Sayings for Life

I love sitting and listening to older, wiser folks than myself. I love history and learning it from people who loved it. There is something about sitting on a porch swing with someone old in days who has seen so much change and endured so much through their walk in life. The proverbial writer acts as a father to us and treats you and I as “sons and daughters” who are learning. As disciples of Jesus, that’s exactly what we are doing and we constantly sit in the learner seat. Thank God for wise fathers who taught us what to do right. Even so, for those of us who had no good fatherly example in life, we learned what “not” to do. I wanted to share some of the wise words and sayings I’ve heard in the first 35 years of life.

- When you hear a kind word spoken about a friend, pass it along (Proverbs 3:27; Galatians 6:10). If it’s a negative word, keep it to yourself.
- As a man, spoil your spouse, not your children (2 Samuel 12:3, 8; Proverbs 5:18–19; Ephesians 5:25; 1 Peter 3:7).
- It is not our job to get people to like us. It is our job to like people (John 13:35; Hebrews 13:1; 1 Peter 1:22; 2:17).
- To help your children turn out well, spend twice as much time with them and half as much money on them (Genesis 44:30; Proverbs 22:6; Ephesians 5:16; 6:4; Colossians 4:5).
- Focus on others, not on self (Galatians 2:20; Philippians 2:3–5). Someone wrote, “How to Be Miserable.” It reads, “Think about yourself. Talk about yourself. Use ‘I’ as often as possible. Mirror yourself continually in the opinion of others. Listen greedily to what people say about you. Expect to be appreciated. Be suspicious. Be jealous and envious. Be sensitive to slights. Never forgive a criticism. Trust nobody but yourself. Insist on consideration and respect. Demand agreement with your own views on everything. Sulk if people are not grateful to you for favors shown them. Never forget a service you have rendered. Shirk your duties if you can. Do as little as possible for others.”

Sunday, October 17: Potluck after morning worship—come and enjoy great fellowship and food.

Bob Johnson is out of isolation. Carol can see him if she makes an appointment. Please continue to pray for Bob.

Doug Stephens has been very weak for a few days. Please remember Connie as she takes care of him.

Connie is feeling better and just finishing her quarantine.

Mike Carpenter’s wife Lisa has recovered from Covid and has gone back to work.

Adam Carpenter has recovered from Covid, just waiting until the end of his quarantine.

Carolyn Snyder has completed her chemo treatments. She has started her other treatment and it makes her sick when she takes it.

Kathy Simmons had a cat scan last week and she does not need to have surgery. The saliva doctor also said she does not need surgery for that.

Please remember all of those in nursing homes and those that are shut in.

Please pray for Patty Lynch’s daughter-in-law, Amber Delancey as she recovers from Covid.

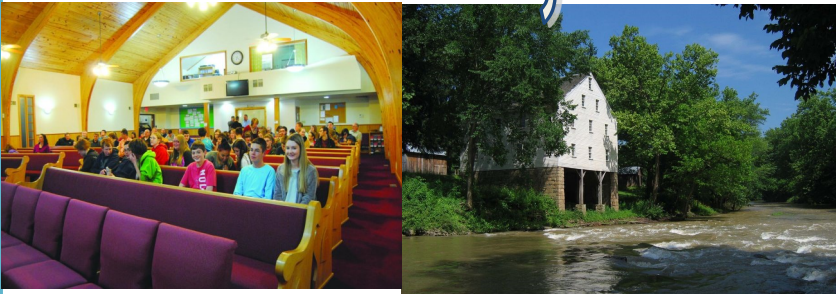

Cristeena and Stacey Robinson are both recovering from Covid. Stacey has returned to work and Cristeena is still struggling. The doctor said that she has pneumonia.

Kristy Johnson was diagnosed with stage one breast cancer. Please keep her in your prayers.

Delight

To “delight” in something is to experience great pleasure. It is to be pleased by someone or something.

Scripture tells us that God delights in His Son (cf. Isa. 42:1; Matt. 3:17).

In like fashion, we should too! Knowing and following the Son of God, Jesus the Christ, should delight those of us who are Christians—it should bring us great pleasure!

“Delight yourself in the Lord, and He will give you the desires of your heart” (Ps. 37:4).

That which brings us pleasure speaks volumes about us.

We weep when we lose what we love, and we will beam with an undeniable smile when we gain what we love.

With that in mind, what do our expressions of delight reveal about our hearts?
