Sunday Morning Message: Pilate's Final Attempt to Release Jesus

Sunday Evening Message: Superior Access to God

The Mission of the Church

Matthew 28:18-20 (ESV) ¹⁸ And Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me." ¹⁹ Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, ²⁰ teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age."

Jesus was strong on having a clear "mission." After His resurrection, He gave the command we have read in Matthew 28:18-20.

Our mission is to "go" to all the world—locally and in places far away—where we are to "make disciples" (learners, followers), and having brought them to the point of faith, we are to "baptize" them. Then our work continues as we "teach" these baptized believers all that Jesus has taught. Peter describes it like this: After one becomes a Christian, that person is to "Grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ" (2 Peter 3:18).

Other passages that help us define another aspect of our mission are Acts 6:1-6 (feeding the Grecian widows) Galatians 6:10 (do good to all, especially to the household of faith), and First Timothy 5:3-16 (tells the church how to care for widows). This leads to some suggestions for the mission of the church:

- 1) To have a strong program of outreach to spread the gospel both near and far and, as a climax to this teaching, the congregation should baptize into Christ those who have believed.
- 2) The congregation should have a strong, well-developed program to educate, encourage, and engage all members in serving.
- 3) The church should have a program of benevolence to help its own members and others.
- 4) The church should conduct regular worship on the Lord's Day to honor, thank, and praise God.

As a church we need to focus on the work or mission that Jesus has left us to do. We call it the work of the church and it is for every member of the Lord's Church.

May God Bless Us in His Work—Elvis Galbreath
