THE SUNRISE MESSENGER

Volume 34 Issue #9 February 25, 2024

Welcome to Our Worship
Sunday Morning Message: The God of Justice and Mercy
Sunday Evening Message: The Good Samaritan

Go Into All the World

"Go into all the world and preach the gospel to all nations" (Mark 16:16). So Jesus commissioned His disciples following His resurrection. He sent His men into the world to preach good news to everyone. By application, we are to take the good news of our Savior into the world. If we don't, who will?

We Must Go Into the World With Our Eyes Opened. When Jesus sent out His hand-picked representatives, He wanted them to go with opened eyes (Matthew 10:16). He knew they would be as sheep in the midst of wolves and would need to be both shrewd and innocent. We must take the gospel to a world that does not know Jesus (John 1:10) and does not want light (John 3:19-20). We work in enemy territory and must have our eyes opened.

We Must Go Into the World With Our Hearts Opened. It is easy in a society permeated by sin either to acquiesce to its pressures or to grow cynical and skeptical about it. We may need to take a step back to see the larger picture. Our world is subjected to futility. Creation is suffering and groaning (Romans 8:18-23). People live fragmented lives, scattered and shattered by sin, whether they know it or not. Sin is taking its awful toll and sinners are its victims. We need to open our hearts to the sin-wrecked lives of our friends, neighbors and loved ones.

We Must Go Into the World With Our Hands Opened. All Christians cannot go to distant places to preach. But some can, and we should send them, support them, and encourage them. In Corinth, Paul joined with Aquila and Priscilla in tent-making to support himself while preaching. Given the circumstances, Paul was careful and judicious in receiving support from the Corinthians themselves (see 1 Corinthians 9:3-14). But then Silas and Timothy came from Macedonia, and he "began devoting himself completely to the word" (Acts 18:1-5). They brought financial resources to Paul, enabling him to focus entirely on preaching the gospel.

We Must Go Into the World With Our Mouths Opened. Finally, this is what it takes—you and me telling people about Jesus. It may be an invitation to services. It may be a suggestion to have a Bible study or to set up a Bible study with someone else teaching. It may be inviting children to Vacation Bible School or brining children to the classes. Who knows what God may do through your invitation or words of encouragement.

Prayer Request

- Chris Wigal, Janice, and Carylon's sister-in-law was sent home on oxygen. They did not do the biopsy since they were worried about her lung collapsing. She has 3 masses in her lung. She goes to cancer doctor next month.
- Gary Wigal, Janice, and Carylon's brother is also still sick.
- Please keep Patty Vaughan in your prayers for possible COVID.
- Helen May, a former member of Sunrise, is back in Cedar Grove.
- Katy Huber Smith's little girl is finished with cancer treatments and will soon be tested to see if she is in remission. This is Helen May's great-granddaughter.
- Please keep the 14-year-old grandson of Larry & Vonda Shears as he has second- and third-degree burns.
- Danny Carpenter Sr. has been having health issues. Please keep him in your prayers.
- Please keep Nancy VanMeter in your prayers. She is still going through cancer treatments and is very weak.
- Elvis' great niece Ashley is home now and doing treatments as an outpatient for muscular dystrophy and heart problems.
- Please remember Tammy Phillips' nephew Clinton as he deals with stage four liver disease and only half his heart is working.
- Please pray for Leslie as he is on the liver transplant list now and also has heart concerns. This is Tammy Phillips' other nephew.

Please remember to encourage our shut-ins
