Lessons We All Came Learn.

It was a wonderful experience to spend time out at camp recently. Yes, it was very hot at times, but God did bless us with pretty good weather. Yes, there was a multitude of bugs, and they were the size of Texas! But it was all worth it to spend time with our youth. Camp sometimes reminds us of some things maybe we already know.

First, anyone is able to understand and apply the Bible to their life. Many times, we think that scripture is too hard to understand. But the truth is that we can help each other and figure out some of the hard-to-understand verses. Isaiah 53:5 (ESV) ⁵ "But he was pierced for our transgressions; he was crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the chastisement that brought us peace, and with his wounds we are healed." This was one of the memory verses some of the seven-year-olds had a hard time reading. The word "transgressions" was hard to read and understand. But it was pretty easy to teach them to read it and described that it simply was the sin that we commit. Another difficult word is "chastisement" which simply means discipline or correction. We may need to help each other just like the campers and staff.

Second, it is profitable to set some of the worldly things aside for a while and concentrate on Jesus. People are busier than ever in history. The more technology we have to save us time it seems the busier people become. As staff and campers, we can set all those things aside for a time and spend time together in God's word. I am amazed that the first century church had time to spend together in the doctrine. Acts 2:46 (NKJV) ⁴⁶ "So continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, they ate their food with gladness and simplicity of heart." It is a good thing to spend time in the word of God and with other Christians.

Lastly, when you spend time with children you see an innocent heart. Matthew 18:2-5 (NKJV) ² "Then Jesus called a little child to Him, set him in the midst of them, ³ and said, "Assuredly, I say to you, unless you are converted and become as little children, you will by no means enter the kingdom of heaven. ⁴ Therefore whoever humbles himself as this little child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven. ⁵ Whoever receives one little child like this in My name receives Me." Jesus is pretty clear about become just like these little children.

We too can do all these things. We can spend time studying and understanding the scripture. We can set some of our world tasks aside for a time and put the word of God and the church in its place. As part of this our heart will become more like the innocent heart of little children. It was certainly a blessing to spend time with the children.

For His glory—Elvis Galbreath

- † Please keep Ronda's dad in your prayers. He is in the hospital, and they are doing more tests. He is taking PT at this time.
- † Donnie Hendershot is very weak and not feeling well.
- † Connie Lynch fell last week and bused her ribs and has a bump on her legs.
- † Please pray for Tammy Phillips' nephew Clinton as he deals with medical concerns.
- † Please remember Evenly Duckworth in your prayers as she recovers.
- † Tony, Elvis & Anne's neighbor's brother-in-law is worse from his stroke. He is now in critical condition.
- † Tammie Harris' sister Anita is now home from the hospital. She left on her own accord, although not any better. She is still in need of prayers.

Backpack & School Supply Give Away

We are excited to announce that we will be predicating in a backpack and school supply give away in mid-August. We will be releasing more information as we get closer to the date. It is our plan to have it here at the building to be able to have people come in order for us to get to know them a little and get their information. We should have so free light snacks. If you would like to start looking for deals on backpack or some other school supplies that would be great!
