Sunday Morning Message: Portrait of Timothy Part Two
Sunday Evening Message: Song Service

Be Glad in the Lord!

In contrast to the Old Testament attitude, because of the nature of the spiritual kingdom of the church, Jesus has instructed His followers to fight the wicked with the sword of the Spirit and grace and to leave vengeance with the Lord (Mt. 5:39-40). As the writer closes the psalm, he turns in his prayer to all who find security in God. He asks that the righteous may become keenly aware of their blessings and rejoice in the great grace they have received.

Psalm 5:11-12 (NASB) [11] But let all who take refuge in You be glad, Let them ever sing for joy; And may You shelter them, That those who love Your name may exult in You. [12] For it is You who blesses the righteous man, O LORD, You surround him with favor as with a shield. Whoever benefits from God's protective hand should recognize what shelter he has received and pray with thanksgiving and happiness about it. He further asks that such blessed ones may ever sing for joy. As children of all mighty God, we are so blessed that the joy in our lives should overflow. David's prayer is that they might see their blessings and continually value them and rejoice over them.

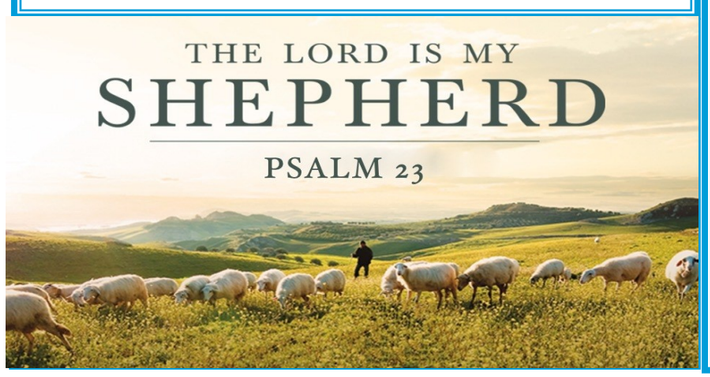

Acknowledging our gifts from the hand of God will result in our relationship with God. As children of the God who created us and cares for us, we should love Him with all of our heart, soul, and mind. God should always be approached with praise. It is only appropriate that those who have been sheltered by God's strong arm should "exult in" or praise Him joyously. Praise is extolling God because, by His might and greatness, He has provided for His people. Prayer is not complete until God has been praised.

As we serve the Lord all the days of our life, let us be thankful! Let us praise Him in everything we say and do as we live our lives. May the world look at us as the church and know that we always are joyful and praising our Lord and Master.

For His Glory—Elvis Galbreath

Prayer Requests

- † Danny Carpenter Sr. is recovering from bladder surgery. He will also have surgery on his artery October 23rd. Please keep him in your prayers.
- † Please pray for Tammy Phillips' brother Danny Freeman as he is dealing with health problems.
- † Please pray for Ruth Ann Lemon as she goes through medical tests.
- † Donnie Hendershot received the results from his biopsy. The large mass was not cancer, so his cancer is all gone. He will need a few radiation treatments to get rid of the mass.
- † Marsha Haddox is radiation treatments.
- † Karson Elrod is at home and doing out patient rehab.
- † Roy's friend Terry Staats had his procedure Wednesday and is recovering well.
- † Paul Facemire's aunt Sharron that had heart surgery was back in the hospital because of difficulty with the surgery. They are trying to manage it with medication.
- † Delbert White may have eye surgery soon.

Please pray for all the flood victims

They had no warning, no time to evacuate The roads are essentially all gone There are thousands of people unaccounted for People are trapped in there houses There is no water, food, or power People are starting to loot and behave dangerously Supplies are having to be airlifted down There is no cell phone signal for most Water system is severely damaged and could take weeks to fix Trucks cannot deliver supplies/ get to grocery stores because of the roads Animals are in need.

We have so many Christians in the southeastern states that have been affected by the storms. Many agency's are rushing to help the people of these areas. Among those are the churches of Christ Disaster Relief Inc. out of Nashville Tennessee. They not only are delivering supplies to churches of Christ for distribution but also are asking for help to go to the affected areas. Please keep these people and this work in your daily prayers!
